

FALL DIGGING HAZARD TREES

Acer rubrum and cultivars Red Maple
Betula species Birch
Carpinus species Hornbeam
Celtis species Hackberry
Cercidiphyllum species Katsura
Cercis species Redbud
Cornus florida and cultivars Flowering Dogwood
Cornus kousa and cultivars Kousa Dogwood
Crataegus species Hawthorn
Fagus species Beech
Gleditsia species Honeylocust
Halesia species Silverbell
Koelreuteria paniculata Goldenraintree
Liquidambar species Sweetgum
Liriodendron species Tuliptree
Magnolia species Magnolia
Malus in leaf Crabapple
Nyssa sylvatica Blackgum
Ostrya species Ironwood
Platanus species Sycamore
Prunus species Cherry, Plum
Pyrus species Pear, Should not plant these anyway
Quercus species Oak, except Pin oak
Salix species Willow
Sorbus species Mountainash
Stone Fruit ó Plum, Almond, Apricot, Cherry, Peach
Tilia tomentosa and cultivars Silver Linden
Ulmus species Elm
Zelkova species Japanese Zelkova

These are trees that we have found to have poor survival rates when dug for transplanting in the Fall. When possible, secure Spring dug material or container-grown trees.